I. STATEMENT OF CHARGES

Pursuant to RCW 18.44.440, the Director of the Department of Financial Institutions ("Director") is responsible for the administration of chapter 18.44 RCW, the Escrow Agent Registration Act ("the Act")¹. After having conducted an investigation, and based upon the facts available as of July 10, 2000, the Director institutes this proceeding and finds as follows:

II. FACTUAL FINDINGS

A. Arlington Escrow, Inc. ("Arlington") is known to have conducted business as an escrow agent at 425 N. Olympic Ave, Arlington, Washington 98223. Such business was licensed to conduct the business of an escrow agent in February 1995. Such license was surrendered on November 2, 1999.

B. Julie A. Nelson ("Nelson") was known by the Department of Financial Institutions ("Department") to be the owner and Designated Escrow Officer ("DEO") of Arlington. Nelson was licensed by number 540-DO-0055-00 on October 15, 1998, and was valid until September 7, 1999. Nelson was the DEO for all periods of time relevant to these charges.

2 C. On October 11, 1999, the Department was informed by Persing, Dyckman &
3 Toynbee, agent of the bonding company which bonded Arlington, that Arlington's bond had
4 been canceled on September 4, 1999, at the request of Arlington and Nelson. Pursuant to RCW
5 18.44.050(2)(c), such cancellation was not effective until November 10, 1999.

6 D. On October 26, 1999, an Arlington customer, Maxine Gagnat ("Gagnat")
7 informed the Department that a proceeds check in excess of $26,000.00, drawn on Arlington's
8 trust bank account had been returned by her bank for non-sufficient funds. The Department
9 contacted Arlington's bank, First Heritage Bank ("First Heritage"), and was informed that 10 Arlington's trust bank account did not contain sufficient funds to cover the check.

11 E. On November 2, 1999, the Department entered Subpoena Duces Tecum No. 99-
12 102-S01, commanding Arlington and Nelson to produce any and all bank statements, deposit
13 records, canceled checks and any other information related to the escrow trust account of 14 Arlington.

15 F. Pursuant to Subpoena Duces Tecum No. 99-102-S01, the Department took 16 possession of various bank and trust account records on November 2, 1999. However, Nelson
17 was unwilling or unable to produce the September 1999, bank statement and canceled checks.
18 Nelson was also unwilling or unable to produce the trust bank account reconciliations, client
19 ledger records and many of the individual escrow transaction files for the periods of January
20 through October 1999.

21 G. In a conversation with Financial Examiner Vivian Lee of the Department on 22 November 2, 1999, Nelson stated that she had not reconciled Arlington's trust bank account to 23 the client ledgers in "a couple of months." In its investigation, the Department found that 24 Nelson, as DEO for Arlington, had not completed the required monthly reconciliations of the 25 client ledgers to the trust account bank statements since October 1998.

H. On November 10, 1999, an Arlington customer, Phyllis Huber ("Huber") informed the Department that she and her husband had closed a refinance transaction at Arlington on September 13, 1999. As a part of the transaction, Arlington was to remit $10,170.30 from the funds provided from Huber's lender to satisfy a VISA card debt owed by the Huber's. In telephone conversations with the Department and in a complaint filed by Huber, Huber informed the Department that Arlington had placed the wrong account number on the check. Huber informed the Department that this debt had not been paid. A review of Huber's escrow file reveals that check number 24146, dated September 17, 1999, was drafted to First USA Bank, NA, however, this check has not cleared Arlington's account to date.

I. On November 15, 1999, the Department issued Subpoena Duces Tecum No. 99-102-S03², commanding Arlington and Nelson to produce any and all bank statements, deposit records, canceled checks and any other information related to Arlington's general business account for the periods of January 1998 through October 1999. This subpoena also commanded that pursuant to the Department's subpoena of November 2, 1999, Arlington and Nelson were to produce all escrow trust account records of Arlington including but not limited to the bank statement, deposit records and canceled checks for the month of September 1999, and to produce individual client escrow ledgers, trial balances and transaction files. Arlington and Nelson have not complied with this subpoena.

J. On November 15, 1999, based on the Department's difficulty in communicating with Nelson and Arlington, continued activity in Arlington's trust account and the significant danger that remaining assets and trust account funds of Arlington may be lost or misappropriated, the Department entered Temporary Order to Cease and Desist No. 99-102-001 ("TCD"). The TCD ordered Arlington and Nelson to immediately comply with all information requests, directives, and subpoenas from the Department, immediately produce evidence of a fidelity bond and errors and omissions policy in compliance with the Act and provide the Department with a full reconciliation of all Arlington escrow trust accounts. Arlington and Nelson failed to comply with the TCD.

K. The Department was informed by First Heritage on November 15, 1999, that Arlington's trust bank account contained $268.69; an insufficient sum to pay the claims of Gagnat and Huber. At the Department's request, First Heritage froze Arlington's trust account to protect the remaining funds from disbursement.

L. A review of the deposits to Arlington's general bank account reveals that during the period from September 17, 1999 through October 20, 1999, Arlington and Nelson apparently converted six checks totaling $24,000.00 from Arlington's trust bank account by depositing said checks into Arlington's general bank account. Three of the converted checks fail to contain an identifying escrow file number and two of the checks contain escrow file numbers that reference escrow transactions that do not exist. The final check is identified to escrow file number 984123, which closed on May 1, 1998. A review of this file shows that all checks and receipts were disbursed and receipted in accordance with the escrow instructions. When the escrow transaction closed, this account "zeroed" out, with no funds remaining in the account. Further, there is no indication that funds should have remained or been held back in this account for future disbursement.

M. A review of checks drawn on Arlington's trust bank account reveals that check number 24231, dated October 7, 1999, in the amount of $6,662.96 was made payable to Arlington Escrow, Inc. This check contained an escrow file number that does not exist. Although this check was not deposited into Arlington's general bank account, this check was

2 endorsed, "Arlington Escrow, Inc." The check cleared Arlington's trust bank account on 3 October 8, 1999.

4 N. As of July 10, 2000, the Department has identified eight parties who claim that 5 they should have funds totaling $48,993.55 held in trust with Arlington. In addition, the 6 Department has found that many of the seized escrow transaction files contain checks issued
7 on Arlington's trust account that have not been forwarded to the payees and that another
8 significant number of the customer files should have funds still in escrow pending
9 disbursement.

10 O. As a result of the apparent conversion of funds outlined in L. and M. above, 11 Arlington's trust bank account does not contain sufficient funds to satisfy its obligations as 12 described in D., H., and N. The Department believes the shortfall to be in excess of $50,000.

13 P. The Department's investigation began on November 2, 1999, and continues to 14 date.

15 III. GROUNDS FOR ENTRY OF ORDER

16 A. Pursuant to RCW 18.44.201:

17 (1) At the time of filing an application for an escrow agent license, or any cash or securities in the principal amount of fifty thousand dollars deposited in an approved depository on condition that they be available for payment of any claim payable under an equivalent errors and omissions policy in that amount and pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the Department for that purpose; and

(c) A surety bond in the amount of ten thousand dollars executed by the applicant as obligor and by a surety company authorized to do a surety business in this state as surety, unless the fidelity bond obtained by the licensee to satisfy the requirement in (a) of this subsection does not have a deductible. The bond shall run to the state of Washington as obligee, and shall run to the benefit of the state and any person or persons who suffer loss by reason of the applicant's or its employee's violation of this chapter. The bond shall be conditioned that the obligor as licensee will faithfully conform to and abide by this chapter and all rules adopted under this chapter, and shall reimburse all persons who suffer loss by reason of a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter. The bond shall be continuous and may be canceled by the surety upon the surety giving written notice to the Director of its intent to cancel the bond. The cancellation shall be effective thirty days after the notice is received by the Director. Whether or not the bond is renewed, continued, reinstated, reissued, or otherwise extended, replaced, or modified, including increases or decreases in the penal sum, it shall be considered one continuous obligation, and the surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount exceeding the penal sum set forth on the face of the bond. In no event shall the penal sum, or any portion thereof, at two or more points in time be added together in determining the surety's liability. The bond shall not be liable for any penalties imposed on the licensee, including but not limited to, any increased damages or attorney's fees, or both, awarded under RCW 19.86.090.

(4) Except as provided in RCW 18.44.221, the fidelity bond, surety bond, and the errors and omissions policy required by this section shall be kept in full force and effect as a condition precedent to the escrow agent's authority to transact escrow business in this state, and the escrow agent shall supply the Director with satisfactory evidence thereof upon request.

Arlington and Nelson are in apparent violation of this section when they canceled the bond and errors and omissions policy on September 4, 1999, and failed to re-instate the coverage as required by the Act and ordered in the Department's TCD of November 15, 1999.

B. Pursuant to RCW 18.44.420, the Director may:

(1) Make necessary public or private investigations within or outside of this state to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the prescribing of rules and forms under this chapter; or

(2) Require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the Director determines, as to all facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated.
