NASCUS WA Directors College, April 30, 2014

Make plans to attend Directors College
Wednesday, April 30 in SeaTac, WA

Regulators of all industries – including financial services – are turning their attention to the manner in which boards of directors carry out their responsibilities. At the same time, credit union (CU) operations, products, services and regulations are growing in complexity. NASCUS encourages state credit union board members to join us for this one day event geared toward enhancing directors' understanding of the critical statutory, fiduciary and regulatory responsibilities of a director.

Agenda:

1. “National Issues for Credit Unions”
Mary Martha Fortney, President and CEO National Association of State Credit Union Supervisors (NASCUS)
2. “Marijuana Issues Facing Washington”
Scott Jarvis, Director, Department of Financial Institutions State of Washington,
3. “Virtual Currency”
Linda Jekel, Director of Division of Credit Unions
4. “Board Compensation”
John Trull, Director of Regulatory Affairs, Northwest Credit Union Association and David Curtis, Director of Compliance, Northwest Credit Union Association
5. “Exam Issues – Panel from Department of Financial Institutions State of Washington”
Doug Lacy-Roberts, Program Manager, Jane Johnson, Examiner Supervisor, Glenn Ross, IS&T Examiner
6. “Open Forum and Q & A”
Open to All

The school is scheduled from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 30, 2014 at the SeaTac Office Towers, 18000 International Blvd, SeaTac, WA 98188. Tuition for NASCUS members is $199. Tuition for nonmembers is $299. Content is geared toward state and federal CU directors but all CU officials are welcome to attend. If you have any questions or wish to register, please email Isaida@nascus.org or phone 703-528-0796.
